'Pops' Concert to Feature Songs from South Pacific

The free annual "Pops" Concert of the Torrance Adult Orchestra will be held on Friday night, November 10, at 8 o'clock at the Torrance Civic Auditorium. By far the most ambitious attempt of this expanding group, the concert will include dancers, singers, duets, community singing, social dancing, and according to Maestro Abe Milstein, "pretty girls."

Civic Group Cites Need For Blinkers

Blinkers on the stop signs at 172nd street, 174th street, and 182nd street where they cross Crenshaw boulevard in North Torrance were recommended by the Safety Committee of the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association at its bi-monthly meeting held last Wednesday evening.

Jack White, safety chairman, was instructed to contact officials of the Highway Department in an effort to secure the blinker-type signs for those intersections.

The group also scheduled its next meeting for Wednesday, Nov. 1, at which time Ted Beight will present a toll authority to speak to the residents on adobe.

Present at last week's meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Burt Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Collins, Mrs. Phyllis Brooks, Mrs. J. Hernan Cortez, Ted Beight, Jack White, Delbert Allford, David Dyer, and Owen Bertrand.

COASTAL ISLANDS

Norway's coast is bordered by about 150,000 islands, varying greatly in area and height.
